

The Riviera Maya begins in Puerto Morelos and ends in Tulum, it is more than 130 kilometers long where the Mayan Gods were able to relax.

At the Riviera Maya, you can hike for a day or take over a deserted beach. You will find luxurious hotel developments, golf courses, spa and marinas. There is a path of approximately 135 km long of forest and pristine beaches and perfect weather all year round of about 24° and 30° Celssius. You can dive on the Great Mayan Reef, the second largest in the world which is more than 10 meters deep! or practice all kinds of sports, from swimming to horseback riding on the beach. The Mayan Cities such as Coba and Tulum, are there for you to visit or just enjoy the nightlife!

All the beaches are beautiful and the accommodations are perfect! For this reason, every tourist who knows the Riviera Maya has been captivated by it. In the Riviera Maya you will enjoy peace, harmony, and fun mixed with abundant forest and the natural environment for a perfect holiday. This is the reason that many of the people who live there are foreigners, because as they come, they love the place, stay and will not return to their place of origin!
